Shut Up and Eat (3848 SE Gladstone St.)
Monday, January 25

Board Members Present: Rachel Davies, Darian Davies, Jason de Parrie-Turner & Jordan de Parrie

General Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 7:00

Jason de Parrie-Turner moved to approve the agenda. Darian Davies seconds the motion and it passed unanimously.

Announcements/Show and Tell

Yashar concerned about ODOT's move to remove bike lane on 26th. PBOT doesn't want to remove them. He is asking for enforcement from CKNA to voice concerns. The issue is on the agenda for this evening.

Neighborhood Officer's Report: none

Bike Lanes/20s Bikeway

Construction to begin this summer. On 28th Ave, traffic will be regulated: no left on Powell or off Powell and 28th Ave, barricades similar to Clinton and Cesar Chavez. PBOT wants to keep bike lanes on 26th after bike lanes on 28th Ave are complete. ODOT wants to remove the bike lanes on 26th. The agreement between ODOT and PBOT is: PBOT will collect data on usage on 26th to decide if bike lanes are still necessary. This issue is open for public comments. Jessica from HAND commented that HAND would like to connect with NACK for bike/traffic safety issues.

Homeless Camps

Housing state of emergency for homeless. The Overlook NA is looking for assistance because unofficial homeless camps have sprung up. The city is granting permits to campers. Overlook NA wrote a letter to the city asking for limits on these permits. According to the city, the homeless camps in the Overlook neighborhood could become a model for the rest of the city.
