Community member, Paul, asked if we know what new construction projects in neighborhood. Rachel clarifies that NA is notified when there is a demolition and/or variance of city code but not for all construction projects.

Rachel informed us that the city's neighborhood watch coordinator, Mark Wells, is booked out for a couple of months for training for those who would like to become neighborhood watch organizer. Wells does have a few appointments (July 24, 10a-12noon, August 20th, 10a-12noon) in which community members could come to his office at 4747 E Burnside Street. Wells will be coming to our neighborhood in August 18th, 6:30-8:30p to Kenilworth Presbyterian Church for training any interested neighbors.

7:23 Neighborhood Officer's Report- Officer Ray Stowe informed us that PPD hired a new chief. No unusual crime to report in our neighborhood. There are reports of typical bicycle thefts for this time of year and using a U-lock (vs cable lock) is a deterrent.

There is low morale at the police department, in part, due to shortage of officers and support staff. Zach Smith asked if he knows anything about the person who was arrested on 5th and SE Ivon with stolen bike parts, Officer Stowe has not heard anything about it.
